

Bova CFT Services, LLC
1266 Dennis Street North
Saint Paul, Minnesota 55119
bovacftservices@gmail.com
651.338.7485

Edward Bova enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at age 17 and has 30+ years of law enforcement experience and over 35 years as an instructor, educator, facilitator and consultant. Edward has taught in a wide number of arenas from the college and high school classroom to regional police academies. He earned more commendations (3 for valor) than any other agency member. He was the 1996 Minnesota Police Officer of the Year (valor), the recipient of the Northwest Youth Family Services “Outstanding Service to Youth Award, founded the NBPD “Santa-Cop” Program to provide for needy families at Christmas, and is active in many charitable organizations throughout the twin cities.

Edward has an Associate of Arts Degree in Law Enforcement, a Bachelors of Arts Degree in Police Administration, and a Master of Science Degree in Management. He is a graduate of the Southern Police Institute, 77th Administrative Officers Course (AOC). He recently retired from the New Brighton, Minnesota, Police Department where he had a variety of assignments including; Field Training Officer & Supervisor (authoring a manual held as a national model utilizing the task checklist method), County-wide In-Service Training Coordinator, Firearms Instructor, Scope-Sighted Rifleman, Narcotics Investigator, School Resource Officer and Administrative Officer.

He received and completed the first mobility assignment to Minnesota Peace Officers Standards & Training Board (POST). Also, he presented at four (4) consecutive ASLET International Training Conferences and served as the ASLET Minnesota State Director. Edward has constructed and facilitated curricula in many areas, a few examples are: Instructor Development, State and Local Anti-Terrorism, Field Training Programs, Officer Survival, Workplace Violence, Human Relations for Police Officers, School Shooters – What We Know to Best Practices, The Crime Prevention Role and Critical Strategies in Preventing School Shootings & Violence, and The Use of Drug Detector Dogs for Random Sniffs in Our High Schools, etc. He has been a featured key-note speaker for many organizations and conferences. He is experienced in providing expert witness services, organizational, personal and leadership consulting Further, with expertise in safe schools assessments. .

Edward or “Eddie” as he is known, came on board as an instructor for NASRO in 1998. He was the initial recipient of the NASRO Instructor of the Year Award. He continues to serve on the NASRO Training Committee with a commitment to help make the NASRO training experience the best possible for our stakeholders. He continues to enthusiastically teach and communicate the positive attributes of school-based policing throughout our great nation.

Eddie is the founder and Owner of, Bova CFT Services, LLC.
This company facilitates consulting, facilitating and training services that provide mission-driven strategies for organizational and personal success.

Mission-Driven Strategies for Success