

Officer Deb VanVelzen

In 2004, Deb VanVelzen joined the Des Moines Police Department where she currently is assigned to one of Iowa's largest high school as a school resource officer. Deb has been an active member of the NASRO since 2006. She currently serves as Regional 5 Director and instructs for NASRO nationally and internationally. Deb also serves on her state (IA) association board.