INVITATION TO THE 2020 TAASRO VIRTUAL WEBINAR

The Alabama Association of School Resource Officers presents

VIRTUAL

TAASRO 2020
21st Annual Safe Schools Conference
SEEING 20/20 INTO SCHOOL SAFETY

WEBINAR Day 1  Monday, June 1, from 8:00 AM-3:00 PM  CST

8:00-10:00  Chief Tony Pustizzi, Retired Chief of Coral Springs Police Department
The Parkland Shooting Through a Police Chief’s Eyes

10:00-12:00  United States Secret Service- National Threat Assessment Center
Protecting America’s Schools: A U.S. Secret Service Analysis of Targeted School Violence

1:00-3:00  Dr. Peter Langman, Nationally recognized psychologist and author “Why Kids Kill: Inside the Mind of School Shooters”
Why Kids Kill

WEBINAR Day 2  Tuesday, June 2, from 8:00 AM-3:00 PM  CST

8:00-10:00  Rich Wistocki, Retired Detective Naperville Police Department
Cyber-Bullying and Sexting Protocols In Our Schools With Appropriate Consequence

10:00-12:00  Carlos Farina
Director Help For Our Heroes First Responder Treatment Program

1:00-3:00  Bart Chandler, Sergeant- Dalton Police Department
Lessons Learned from February 28, 2018, Dalton High School

Participation in the webinars are monitored and those completing each session will receive credit.

No recording or capturing is allowed.

Please join us live for interactive and informative WebEx presentations.

Get caught up on TAASRO news before the webinars!
For an optimal learning experience, it is recommended you read the bio’s of each speaker at www.TAASRO.org before the sessions.

12 APOSTC Virtual Hours, State PLU,
14.4 Nurse CEs Hours Approved by ANRC, 12 Social Workers CEs Hours Approved by ASBSWE