

Bio Sketch – Clark Flatt

Clark Flatt, BS, M.Div.

President / Founding Member Jason Foundation, Inc.
B.S. Business Administration, TN Technological University (1973)
Masters of Divinity – Vanderbilt University (1976)

Clark Flatt is a nationally recognized speaker on the topic of youth suicide awareness and prevention. With over 20 years in the field of suicide prevention, Mr. Flatt, as President of The Jason Foundation, Inc., leads one of the nation's oldest and largest non-profits whose mission is addressing the national health crisis of youth suicide.

The Jason Foundation, Inc.

The Jason Foundation, Inc. (JFI) was founded in October of 1997 after the tragic death of Clark's youngest son, 16-year-old Jason, to the "silent epidemic" of youth suicide. Since its founding, JFI has grown to be one of the nation's leading non-profits addressing the national health crisis of youth suicide. The Jason Foundation, their National Community Affiliates and National Awareness Affiliates create a national network of over 100 local affiliate offices located in 33 states. This network makes available programs and services for all fifty states. JFI has never charged, since their inception, for any program or resource they have contracted to provide. To learn more about The Jason Foundation, their Affiliates and programs visit our website: www.jasonfoundation.com

Clark and his wife, Connie Flatt, have two sons; John A. Flatt, M.D., a Pediatric Neurologist who owns and operates Louisiana Child Neurology in Covington, Louisiana and Jason Flatt, deceased at age 16 in 1997.

Jason Foundation, Inc.
18 Volunteer Drive
Hendersonville, TN 37075
Phone: (615) 264-2323
Website: www.jasonfoundation.com
Email: contact@jasonfoundation.com