

KRISTINA ANDERSON

Leader - The Koshka Foundation

Virginia Tech Student (2007) and Founder of Koshka Foundation.

Kristina was a sophomore at Virginia Tech when she was injured in the tragic shooting of April 16th, 2007. She works to raise awareness of the importance of school safety and violence prevention through sharing her significant encounter with gun violence, as well as working and meeting others affected by irrational acts of aggression.